

The good news was it wasn't raining. The bad news was it was a little bracing. I hope our southern visitors from BOK and SO appreciated the Yorkshire air. Overall around 70 or so brave souls threw off their new years day blues and got a little 2013 air. Well done to Steve Webb, for winning the main event, the quiz, and along with his good wife, the fancy dress prize. Looks like a few of the fancied competitors overestimated their abilities and timing a little, and whilst clocking most of the controls incurred several million penalty points. It was a bit of a rush at the finish and a few control cards were missing names. If anyone thinks I have their result wrong, or missed their xmas bonus, please let me know and I'll make the correction. Many thanks for coming and have a good 2013. Pete Jones
