Thanks to everyone who came along. Hopefully I managed to get everyone's points right. My housemates thought I was slightly mad as I sat on the living room floor sifting through lots of bits of soggy card (Gordon, I don't seem to have your control card). A special shout out to Tim Patterson and Greg Weatherhead for managing to get almost every pin pattern in the wrong box! Looks like Leon needs to brave the woods a bit more if he wants the win in future.
