Thanks to everyone who turned up tonight, and hope you all enjoyed it, including Rob's tricky quiz and Turkey Hill! I wanted to make the map gettable in an hour and Tim proved it could be done, this did have the side effect of helping those who did 45 mins to leap up the leaderboard! Remember there is a 50 point bonus for clearing the map, so for the cluster of people who missed one post box it may well have been worth being slightly late. Any errors let me know, and see you all at Burley Park for the start of the Winter League where I am told there may also be food after... Leon
