Thanks to everyone who braved the seemingly awful weather, thankfully it stopped before 7pm! Hoped you all enjoyed the change of format and it tested the brain a little more than usual, some great scores and impressive performances, I didn't think anybody would get onto the colours, yet alone finish them! I had hoped to set it up on maprun so it would work out automatically, and also match the colours to objects (e.g. brown = telegraph pole) but I didn't get the time, maybe next year, so watch out for that. Any issues with my trascription of the results let me know and I'll get them corrected. See you next week when hopefully the card reader will have appeared! Leon
